

LEASING COMMUNICATION SOLUTIONS

Leasing your technical equipment means you are not tying up more capital than necessary, paving the way for greater opportunities for your company. Leasing instead of owning has a number of benefits:

LEASING IS GOOD FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Leasing your technical equipment is a flexible and economical way of accessing the latest technology.

Another advantage which has become increasingly apparent of late is the fact that a leasing solution is also good for the environment. When you lease your technical equipment, every component becomes part of an eco-cycle where everything that can be recycled or reused is utilised. DAMAGE PROTECTION

You can add comprehensive insurance to our leasing offer. This provides effective protection against financial setbacks and disruptions to business should your equipment be damaged. We then restore your functionality quickly by repairing or replacing the equipment, with no reduction in value, throughout the entire agreement period.

- Your company's entire communication solution is collected in a single agreement, on a single invoice. It can include hardware, software, non-recurring expenses, services and maintenance.
- With a leasing solution, your company will not have to tie up capital in expensive investments. Instead, you just pay a pure operating expense on a monthly or quarterly basis. This gives you greater flexibility, allowing you to make other investments.
- Leasing a complete function simplifies your company's administration, giving you access to all equipment, services and maintenance within the scope of a single agreement.
- With a set agreement term, you know how much you will be paying for the lease for the entire period. This simplifies accounting, budgeting and follow up of your company's expenses.
- The company has the opportunity to monitor rapid technical development. You can upgrade or gradually replace your equipment without affecting your operating expenses.
- The agreement period is adapted to ensure that the cost level is right for your budget. If your company's business changes, we can adjust the agreement to suit the new conditions.
